25TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL WOMAN'S DAY ON KCSM RADIO!

Thursday, March 8th is International Women's Day and KCSM will be celebrating by featuring Jazz women musicians, composers, arrangers, producers and vocalists all day and night long. From foremothers Marian McPartland, Vi Redd and Carline Ray, to current movers and shakers Cecile McLorin Salvant, Angela Wellman and Terri Lyne Carrington. Join Jayn Pettingill, Alisa Clancy, Lee Thomas, Melanie Berzon and Greg Bridges for our 25th Annual International Women's Day Celebration. 24 hours of Women in Jazz, Thursday, March 8th, Midnight to Midnight.

THE ANNALS OF JAZZ WITH RICHARD HADLOCK

SUNDAYS AT 7 PM

The sound of surprise describes both jazz itself and the enduring premise of "The Annals of Jazz." Since 1959, host Richard Hadlock has been improvising on historical themes and bringing forth worthy performers—from Armstrong to Zorn. Each Sunday, we may find Annals in Europe, Asia, Latin America or Back of Town anywhere.

I'M TALKIN' JAZZ

SUNDAY AT 8 AM

- 3/4 ❖ Vocalist Jacqui Naylor & Pianist Art Khu with Alisa Clancy
- 3/11 ❖ Pianist Amina Figarova with Chris Cortez
- 3/18 ❖ Vocalist Sandy Cressman with Chuy Varela
- 3/25 ❖ Pianist/Composer Connie Crothers with Dick Conte

HAVE YOU HEARD WITH PATRICK WOLFF

MONDAY AT 9 PM

3/5 Ralph Lalama

A legend in the New York jazz world, tenor saxophonist Ralph Lalama has been a featured member in the big bands of Woody Herman and Thad Jones, the Village Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, and the Carnegie Hall Jazz Band. In his small group work, he blasts through a gruff and swinging approach to hard bop that speaks the language of jazz without resting in cliché.

3/12 Abdullah Ibrahim

One of the most prominent African jazz musicians, pianist Abdullah Ibrahim (previously named Dollar Brand) was mentored by Duke Ellington, and fused the approach of Duke and Monk with the sensibilities of free jazz and South African choral and gospel music. He is currently going strong in his fifth decade of music-making, and continues to make music that is challenging and spiritually vibrant.

3/19 ❖ Barbara Donald

One of the most commanding of the avant-garde trumpeters, Barbara Donald came to prominence in the 1960's, when her fiery solos and powerful sound combined with her then-husband Sonny Simmons to produce some pivotal records. She released several fine albums as a leader in the 1980s before health problems caused her to slow down, but her voice and contribution is one that deserves far greater recognition.

3/26 Calvin Keys

A Bay Area treasure, Calvin Keys is a world class jazz guitarist who has been taking swing to new levels for over four decades. We'll listen to his wonderful albums as a leader as well as his work as a sideman with masters like Ahmad Jamal.

JAZZ NIGHT IN AMERICA WITH CHRISTIAN MCBRIDE

TUESDAY AT 9 PM

3/6 ❖ Lizz Wright in Atlanta

Vocalist Lizz Wright's most recent album, Grace, was inspired by her roots, her southern heritage, and her family. Jazz Night in America caught up with Lizz for a concert in Atlanta, and on a road trip she took, reacquainting herself with the people and places she came from.

3/13 ❖ Dee Dee Bridgewater: Songs of Freedom

Jazz Night in America spotlights 2017 NEA Jazz Master Dee Dee Bridgewater in a performance from Jazz at Lincoln Center, featuring the music associated with Abbey Lincoln and Nina Simone.

3/20 ❖ Marian McPartland at 100

Marian McPartland, pianist and grand dame of NPR's Piano Jazz, would have celebrated her centennial birthday this month. Jazz Night in America honors McPartland, and her many contributions, with special performances and outtakes from her show.

3/27 ❖ Jane Bunnett and Maqueque

Jazz Night in America catches up with flautist and soprano saxophonist, Jane Bunnett, and her Afro-Cuban band at Jazz at Lincoln Center and in Miami.

PIANO JAZZ WITH MARIAN MCPARTLAND

WEDNESDAY AT 9 PM

3/7 Jeremy Monteiro

Pianist Jeremy Monteiro grew up in Singapore, where he launched a remarkable career, then he gained international attention in 1988 at the Montreaux Jazz Festival. On this 2008 Piano Jazz, he and McPartland perform a set of standards and a few originals, including Monteiro's Asiana and Blues for Sax.

3/14 ❖ Marian & Jimmy McPartland

Piano Jazz revisits a session with Marian and Jimmy McPartland. In this classic program from 1990, the McPartlands perform one of Jimmy's favorite tunes, St. James Infirmary.

3/21 ❖ Earma Thompson

For more than 50 years, Earma Thompson (1923 – 2009) was a constant on the Chicago jazz scene, recognized as the reigning queen of Windy City jazz. In this 2005 Piano Jazz, Thompson showcases her elegant, bluesy style on Back at the Chicken Shack before joining McPartland for Lullaby of the Leaves.

3/28 Gil Goldstein

Composer and arranger Gil Goldstein came to the piano by way of the accordion, which he has rediscovered and added to the jazz lexicon. In this 2001 Piano Jazz session, Goldstein solos on his own City Lights. McPartland accompanies him as he plays accordion for a few tunes, including Waltz for Debbie.

JAZZ PROFILES WITH NANCY WILSON

THURSDAY AT 9 PM

3/1 ❖ Rosemary Clooney

For more than 40 years, vocalist Rosemary Clooney's simple and exquisite singing style defined her career. Her dynamic career also included movie roles and a star turn in her own television show. She will be remembered as one of the finest jazz-based vocalists.

3/8 ❖ Marian McPartland

A treasured jazz pianist, radio host of NPR's Piano Jazz, and educator, Marian McPartland has done as much as anyone to spread the word about jazz and to share its beauty with the general public. As a composer, her works such as In the Days of Our Love have enriched the jazz repertoire.

3/15 Bud Powell

After being brutally beaten by police at age 21, Powell spent the rest of his short life fighting mental illness, until his death in 1966. His music revealed his constant state of struggle. Bud Powell created a ferocious body of music that shattered the limits of bebop and influenced all that followed him.

3/22 Tito Puente

The late Afro-Cuban jazz giant Tito Puente, "El Rey," was the king of the timbales and the mambo, and a recipient of the Presidential Arts Medal. This tribute probes the source of that energy and uncovers the secrets to Puente's prolific and creative life.

3/29 Vibraphonist Bobby Hutcherson

"Looks like he's levitating when he's playing" Host Nancy Wilson details the "whole body experience" and the incredibly palette of colors that vibes master Bobby Hutcherson brought to his art.
